Forecast for Tuesday 25 Oct 2022

Weather: A cloudy night with a few showers at times, the odd clear spell developing. Some morning mist likely and remaining cloudy through the day although the sun might pop out for a time over the eastern mountains towards Bala. A few showers continuing through the afternoon but drier later. Cloud thickening during the late afternoon and evening with an area of rain approaching later in the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 60%, cloud associated with showers around western areas like Snowdon.

Low Cloud and visibility: Patches or scattered low cloud above 600m during the day, especially around the western mountain tops. Low cloud layers will tend to build during the evening as an area of rain spreads in. Visibility will be generally good but may fall moderate in showers and any morning mist, and decreasing through the evening.
